Dash to the Rescue
By Jan Fenimore

Dash lives with her family in Mongolia. Many children of nomads live at a boarding school far, far away. But Dash's teacher comes to their yurt three times a week for home school.

Today, her teacher reads Dash's favorite book. But a big snowstorm is on its way and she must leave quickly to get home before it hits. Father and Grandfather worry the animals will freeze out in the bitter cold.

But Dash has an idea that just might help her family save their animals.

A story of imagination and survival of a Mongolian nomadic family.
